Dear Mrs. Dunn,

As the largest and most comprehensive group of independent physicians in Central California, Santé Community Physicians is dedicated to assuring that the people of our Valley received the very best in medical care. So that our physician organization can continue to meet needs of our growing population, we are constantly working to attract physicians to practice medicine in the Fresno area.

Having a School of Medicine in the Fresno area would enable our community to “grow our own” doctors. Santé Community Physicians supports CHSU’s efforts to make a School of Medicine in Fresno a reality for the health and benefit of our friends and neighbors right here at home.

With warm regards,

Daniel L. Bluestone, MD
Chief Medical Officer
